FEBRUARY SOCIAL CONCERN

(Formerly Tri City Homeless Coalition)

588 Brown Road

They have been active for 20 years.

Sixty-six people may live there for up to 3 months -- men, women & children.

Our concern is the Federal Emergency Shelter Grant Program has denied a grant for $267,195⁰⁰ for the 2 years in financial support to the 66 bed facility.

Without this funding, Abode may have to close the shelter from 10 AM to 6 PM , which would make it useless to residents who work night jobs and sleep during the day.

Another result may be to eliminate eight full-time positions and close four homes for families transitioning from homelessness in Hayward.

There will be a Behind the Scenes Tour of the Sunrise Village Emergency Shelter on Wednesday, February 10 and Wednesday, February 17 from 1 - 2 PM .

Please sign up on the pink clipboard in the narthex if you are interested.

Other ways to help:

Bicycle helmets (Adult & Children) . . . New wash clothes & bath towel:

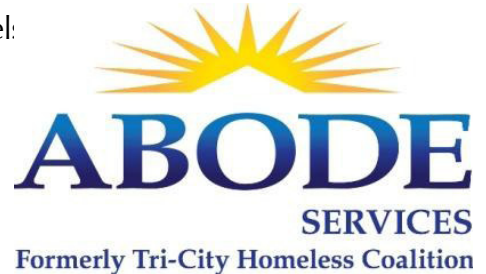

New beanie caps (Adults & Children) . . . New white socks (all sizes)

New umbrellas . . . Large plastic storage bins

Gift cards for shoes, groceries, new car seats, formula, diapers

Container is available for your donations.

Any questions call Betty Swanson @ 299-4236
